

26th November 2022 – BDVA Congress Programme

The following is the planned programme for the British Deer Veterinary Association's 2022 Congress:

Time	Topic
9.15	Reception – registration – introduction at 9.55
10.00	Ken Urquhart - Update on the International Deer Biology Conference, Croatia, September 2022
10.30	Alex Barlow - Surveillance for disease in deer, including CWD, in the UK
11.00 - 11.15; Coffee foyer
11.15	News on deer related research from the Moredun Research Institute. Johne's Disease with Craig Watkins; Cryptosporidia with Clare Hamilton; Nematodes & lungworm with Dave Bartley
12.15	Gabby Drake (Chester Zoo) - Mouse deer artificial insemination project
12.45	Tilly Smith - Update on reindeer beyond the UK (World Reindeer Herders)
13.15 – 14.00; Lunch; foyer
14.00	Ellie Milnes (ZSL) – Tick borne disease and deer in the UK
14.30	Norma Chapman – Muntjac in the UK
15.00	David Jam (Forestry Services, Forestry Commission) – National Strategies & the Deer Management Strategy England
15.30	BDVA - Update on Tb in deer - panel discussion
16.15	Close

NB: The venue is now Summerhall, Newington, Edinburgh EH9 1PL